

If I Could

If I could
I'd travel back in time
And rewrite all the lines
You know I would

If I could
I'd paint away the greys
With colors everyday
You know I would

For I should have opened my eyes
And I should always have realized

If I could
I'd live my life again
To take away your pain
You know I would

If I could
I'd reach beyond the veil
That separates us now
You know I would
And I would offer comfort if I could
Yes I would offer comfort if I could

If I could
If I could
If I could

And I would offer comfort
And I would offer comfort

And I would offer comfort if I could
And I would offer comfort if I could
